

Welcome to Untamed Events! We love creating unforgettable, standout events for every occasion... weddings, corporate holidays, birthdays, anniversaries, and showers - you name it!

Over the years, we have built strong and trusted relationships with countless local vendors and businesses in order to ensure the very best quality of products and services for every client. Our mission, above all, is to take our clients visions and bring them to life with gusto and grace.

Not sure where to start in the planning process? Do you want someone to handle the majority of the planning and deliver an unforgettable experience? We can do that!

Have you done all the work in planning and are looking to enjoy the day while having a trusted team of professionals execute your vision? Yep, We can do that too!

Do you have some things planned but want someone to execute your vision? Do you want to be involved in the planning journey but wish to partner with someone experienced and knowledgeable? No problem, consider it done!

Here are some of the services that UE offers but, we can do so much more than this... just ask us!

- Day of event coordination
- Assistance with rehearsal
- Timeline management
- Décor set up and take down
- Access to the entire on hand UE décor inventory including centerpieces, specialty décor pieces, signs, easels, card boxes, cake stands, specialty accent linens, and so much more.
- Vendor recommendations, bookings and meetings with access to preferred vendor rates and discounts

We don't believe an event belongs in a "package". We understand that every event is unique and would love the opportunity to sit down with you and talk through your vision and provide you with a quote.
